

West Virginia Healthcare Associated Infection Prevention Collaboratives

Name of collaborative	Primary objective	Start date	Stop date	Participant Eligibility	Status	Other information	Contact:
West Virginia Medical Institute (WVMI) Healthcare Associated Infection (HAI) Collaborative (Catheter Associated Urinary Tract Infection (CAUTI))	Reduction of CAUTI by 25% relative improvement for each facility and reduction in number of urinary catheter days/patient days by 10% relative improvement per each facility	August 1, 2011 (Baseline Feb 1, 2011-July 31, 2011)	July 31, 2014	Hospitals both prospective payment system (PPS) and critical access hospital (CAH)	Currently enrolling facilities	Can select an intensive care unit (ICU) or non ICU ward	Patti Connelly, RN pconnelly@wvmi.org
WVMI HAI Collaborative Clostridium difficile Infection (CDI)	Reduction in cases of CDI for each facility as compared to baseline. (no specific percentage given)	Jan 1, 2013 (Baseline July 1, 2012-Dec 31, 2012)	July 31, 2014	Hospitals both PPS and CAH	To begin Jan.1, 2013	TBD (to be determined)	Patti Connelly, RN pconnelly@wvmi.org
WVMI HAI Collaborative Surgical Site Infection (SSI)	50% of facilities recruited agree to participate in SSI reduction activities	Jan 1, 2013 (Baseline July 1, 2012-Dec 31, 2012)	July 31, 2014	Hospitals both PPS and CAH	To begin Jan. 1, 2013	TBD (to be determined)	Patti Connelly, RN pconnelly@wvmi.org